

Go Pioneers!

DEARBORN HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC BOOSTER CLUB

Each year, the Booster Club raises over $35,000 to spend on items and events which benefit EVERY student athlete at DHS.

Annual events sponsored by the DHS Athletic Booster Club to make our school a better place for all our athletes:

- End of season sports awards
- Award up to $10,000 in college scholarships
- Provide league championship t-shirts for all athletics teams
- Bonfire and refreshments at the end of the Battle for the Torch competition
- Provide financial support for the printing and distribution of the Pioneer Post newsletter
- Off-season conditioning available for all female student athletes

In addition to these annual items, we have recently:

- Contributed toward the new door wraps in the Gym hallway
- Purchased two new filtered water fountains for gym area
- Purchased new pitching machines for the softball and baseball teams, separately
- Purchased new helmets for the football team
- Purchased new canopy tents for coaches to use for outdoor competitions
- Contributed to the graphics and signs at the football field
- Provide t-shirts for all league championship athletic teams
- Sponsors refreshments at the Battle for the Torch competition
- Provides financial support for the printing and distribution of the Pioneer Post newsletter
- Purchased new parkas for the swim teams
- Purchased new pull carts for the Golf Teams
- Helped purchase Hudl Athletics Camera to stream games in the gym and the turf field

We are always welcoming new volunteers to help run the concession stands at home sporting events. Like in years past, teams will be assigned dates by the Athletic Director in which to work at the concession stand.

Please check the Booster Club website to see which dates your student's team has been assigned as parent volunteers will be required to operate the concession stand.
